For all judging courses it is the club's responsibility to train all candidates in the recognition of skills up to and including somersaults in all shapes. Candidates must have a background knowledge of competitions and the roles involved. It is not a requirement for a judge to have a CRB in place to take a course or receive an award but if they are going to use it (ie. judge at a competition) then they are classed as being in a regulated activity and therefore required to have a BG CRB.

Syllabus: Relevant competition rules. Competition structure and procedure. Recording of individual and team competitions. Form judging.

Exam: Theory Paper: 11 questions covering the syllabus. Duration 30 minutes. Pass mark 60%.

Practical: Form judge 5 routines up to difficulty 4.0. Pass mark 60%.

Cost: Course fee: £35.00 for applicants attached to a London region club, £40 for all other applicants (payable to London Trampoline). No refunds after the closing date.

Exam fee of £15.00 (payable to British Gymnastics).

BG Affiliation: All candidates must be affiliated to British Gymnastics.

1. The minimum requirement is Club Associate. If you are not already a member, you need to ask your club manager to affiliate you before the start of the course.
