LONDON GRADED 3—6 & RECREATIONAL

Daniel Reed Wins SNUGS Trampoline Competition

Every other year the Special Needs Unit Gymnastics club (SNUGS) play host to holding the Special Needs Gymnastics and Trampoline competition in Milton Keynes. This is a 2 day event, covering all the disciplines within gymnastics.

regional competitions, the performer will warm up his/her routine then have a minutes rest on the trampoline and then compete. Daniel competed two successful routines of which landed him in 1st place!

Hawks twice a week and is coached by Marian Wood. Daniel regularly competes in the elementary group at regional events and was also awarded the special needs trophy for 2006 from London Trampoline.

Daniel Reed of Harlington Hawks T.C. took part in the trampoline competition. All performers were marched on and presented to the audience. After the presentations were completed the warm ups took place.

Daniel was presented his first place medal by the Mayor of Milton Keynes. Daniel was very pleased with his performance which was a big improvement from 2 years ago when he came in 2nd place.

On behalf of Harlington Hawks T.C. we would like to congratulate Daniel on his performance at the SNUGS competition!! Well Done Daniel!!!

Warm ups are organised differently to national and
